Committed To Excellence In Education

September 4, 2009

Dear Parents;

This Tuesday, at 9:00 A.M. President Obama is going to address public school students in a live broadcast. The purpose of this address is to challenge students to set goals, and work hard in school to achieve those goals. The length of the broadcast is 15 to 20 minutes. There has been a lot of controversy over this address, and many people feel that it is politically motivated. Due to the timing, length, and content of this message, we will record it, review it, and determine whether to show it at a later date to students. If we do show it, only students with parent approval will be allowed to view it at school. It will be shown at a time that will not disrupt the learning environment.

One of our priorities at Richfield is individual goal setting with our students. Teachers are constantly, and consistently, setting academic goals with all their students. We are proud of this accomplishment, and will continue to do so. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Todd A. Brose
Superintendent/Principal
